Gentlemen:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(2).

You are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If your purposes, character, or method of operation is changed, you must let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you must inform us of all changes in your name or address.

If your gross receipts each year are normally more than $5,000, you are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, for failure to file a return on time.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Please keep this determination letter in your permanent records.

Sincerely yours,

G. L. Muhlbachler

Acting District Director

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 26-4047512. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear off stub and return it to us.

Based on the information received from you or your representative, you must file the following form(s) by the date(s) shown.

If you have questions about the form(s) or the due date(s) shown, you can call us at the phone number or write to us at the address shown at the top of this notice. If you need help in determining your annual accounting period (tax year), see Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods.

We assigned you a tax classification based on information obtained from you or your representative. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification, and is not binding on the IRS. If you want a legal determination of your tax classification, you may request a private letter ruling from the IRS under the guidelines in Revenue Procedure 2004-1, 2004-1 I.R.B. 1 (or superseding Revenue Procedure for the year at issue). Note: Certain tax classification elections can be requested by filing Form 8832, Entity Classification Election. See Form 8832 and its instructions for additional information.

A limited liability company (LLC) may file Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, and elect to be classified as an association taxable as a corporation. If the LLC is eligible to be treated as a corporation that meets certain tests and it will be electing S corporation status, it must timely file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation. The LLC will be treated as a corporation as of the effective date of the S corporation election and does not need to file Form 8832.

Appendix D: VCF Conflict of Interest Policy

This conflict of interest policy of the Virginia Chess Federation has been adopted by the Board of Directors (BOD) and is applicable to all current Directors/Officers (hereafter, “Covered Persons”), as well as other members or parties as deemed by the BOD.

A. General.

All Directors/Officers owe a duty of loyalty to the VCF. The duty of loyalty requires that they exercise their powers in good faith and in the best interests of the VCF, rather than in their own interests or the interests of another entity or person.

Conflicts between the interests of the VCF and the personal or financial interests of a Covered Person may arise from time to time. Some conflicts of interest are illegal or may subject the VCF or Covered Persons to liability. Some conflicts of interest may be legal, but also unethical or may create an appearance of impropriety. Some conflicts of interest may be in the best interests of the VCF so long as certain procedures are followed. This Conflict Policy is designed to assist Covered Persons in identifying conflicts of interest and in handling them appropriately.

Neither the VCF nor any Covered Person shall enter into any transaction or arrangement that involves an actual, potential, or apparent conflict of interest except in compliance with this Conflict of Interest Policy.

B. Conflict of Interest.

A conflict of interest arises whenever the interests of the VCF come into conflict with a competing financial or personal interest of a Covered Person or an affiliated party (as defined below), or otherwise whenever a Covered Person’s personal or financial interest could be reasonably viewed as affecting their objectivity or independence in fulfilling their duties to the VCF.

While it is not possible to anticipate all possible conflict situations, conflicts of interest typically arise whenever a Covered Person or any affiliated party has (directly or indirectly):

1. A compensation arrangement or other interest in a transaction with the VCF;
2. A compensation arrangement or other interest in or affiliation (subject to de minimis exceptions) with any entity or individual that: (a) sells goods or services to, or purchases goods or services from, the VCF; (b) competes with the VCF; or, (c) the VCF has, or is negotiating, or contemplating negotiating, any other transaction or arrangement;
3. Used his or her position, or confidential information or the assets of the VCF to his or her (or an affiliated party’s) personal advantage or for an improper or illegal purpose;
4. Solicited or accepted any gift, entertainment, or other favor where such gift might create the appearance of influence on the Covered Person (other than gifts of nominal value, which are clearly tokens of respect and friendship unrelated to any particular transaction);
5. Acquired any property or other rights in which the VCF has, or the Covered Person knows or has reason to believe at the time of acquisition that the VCF is likely to have, an interest;
6. An opportunity related to the activities of the VCF that is available to the VCF or to the Covered Person, unless the Board has made an informed decision that the VCF will not pursue that opportunity;
7. Been indebted to the VCF, other than for amounts due for ordinary travel and expense advances; or,

8 Any other circumstances that may, in fact or in appearance, make it difficult for the Covered Person to exercise independence, objective judgment or otherwise perform effectively.

C. Affiliated Party.

“Affiliated party” means a member of the Covered Person’s family including spouses and their siblings, lineal ancestors and descendants, spouses of lineal descendants, siblings (and their spouses and children), domestic partners, or any entity in which the Covered Person (or any affiliated party) has a beneficial interest of more than 5%.

D. Disclosure of an Actual, Potential or Apparent Conflict of Interest.

1. Conflict identification and analysis can be difficult and, therefore, Covered Persons are at all times expected to err on the side of caution and bring to the attention of the Board, a Board Member, or the VCF’s legal counsel all material facts of any matters that may involve conflicts of interest or be perceived by others to raise questions about potential conflicts even if the person does not believe that an actual conflict exists. Disclosures should be made in advance, before any action is taken on the matter.

2. In addition, each Covered Person who currently serves as a Director, or any person who has the ability to exercise substantial influence over the VCF, shall complete a Questionnaire Concerning Conflicts of Interest each year, no later than the end of September, of their affiliation with the VCF, disclosing any actual, potential or apparent conflicts, and affirming that they have read, understand, and have and will continue to adhere to this Conflict Policy. They shall also submit a new Questionnaire disclosing any relevant change in circumstances. Completed Questionnaires shall be reviewed by the Executive Secretary and President and shall be kept on file by the Executive Secretary for the duration of the Covered Persons term of service with the VCF.

E. Evaluation of an Actual, Potential or Apparent Conflict of Interest.

The Board, supplemented by Legal Counsel when necessary, shall evaluate conflict disclosures and make other necessary inquiries to determine the extent and nature of any actual or potential conflict of interest and, if appropriate, investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the potentially conflicting interest and all material facts, and after answering any questions, the interested person shall recuse himself or herself from deliberations and voting relating to the matter and shall refrain from attempting to influence other decision-makers relating to the matter. However, as a member of the Board or committee, an interested Director may be counted in determining the establishment of the quorum at a meeting relating to the matter. When necessary, or when required by a majority vote of Board members, the Board shall seek Legal Counsel.

F. Resolution of an Actual, Potential or Apparent Conflict of Interest.

The VCF may enter into a transaction or other arrangement in which there is an actual or potential conflict of interest only if at a duly held meeting of the Board where a majority of those Directors (if a quorum is present at such time) who have no interest in the transaction or arrangement approve the transaction or arrangement after determining, in good faith and after reasonable inquiry, that:

1. Entering into the transaction or arrangement is in the best interests of the VCF, while considering the VCF’s mission and resources, and the possibility of creating an appearance of impropriety that might impair the confidence in, or the reputation of, the VCF (even if there is no actual conflict or wrongdoing);
2. The transaction or arrangement in its entirety, and each of its terms, are fair and reasonable to the VCF;

3. After consideration of available alternatives, the VCF could not have obtained a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances;
4. The transaction or arrangement furthers the VCF's mission and charitable purposes;
5. The transaction or arrangement is not prohibited under state law⁴ and does not result in private inurement, an excess benefit transaction or impermissible private benefit under laws applicable to tax exempt organizations.

G. Records of Conflict Disclosures and Proceedings.

The minutes of the Board or any committee meeting during which a potential or actual conflict of interest is disclosed or discussed shall reflect the name of the interested Covered Person, the nature of the conflict, and details of the deliberations of the disinterested Directors (such as documents reviewed, alternatives considered, comparative costs or bids, market value information and other factors considered in deliberations) and the resolution of the conflict including any ongoing procedures to manage any conflict that was approved. The interested person shall only be informed of the final decision and not of particular Directors' positions. In addition, certain related party transactions are required to be disclosed in the notes to the VCF's audited financial statements and its annual federal tax filing on Form 990.

H. Compliance.

If any member of the Board has reasonable cause to believe that a Covered Person has failed to comply with this Conflict Policy, they may make such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances and if they determine that a Covered Person has in fact failed to comply with this Conflict Policy, they shall take appropriate action which may include removal from office or termination.

I. Amendment.

This Conflict of Interest Policy may be amended only by a majority of the Board of Directors.
